Financial aid staff members Cindy Bloom, April Crank, and Linda Myers attended the Ohio Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators conference on Nov. 9 in Columbus. Training was conducted on the Ohio College Opportunity Grant (OCOG) available to our students for the upcoming summer semester.

Linda Myers, Sheila Fawley, and Jaime Simmons attended the Federal Student Aid conference the week of Nov. 30 in Las Vegas, Nev. The conference provided free training to colleges in addition to updates on policy regarding the administration of federal financial aid.

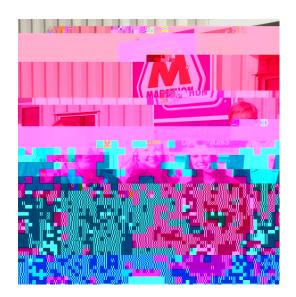

Financial aid information was presented to new students for the spring semester during new student orientations held in December. New students are provided information on the financial aid process and policies and are also registered for $ALT, the financial literacy program free to Southern State students.

Patri-Tots

After seven years without an increase, the Patri-Tot Learning Centers now find it necessary to increase rates. Primary reason for the rate increase is the need to keep up with ever increasing material, supply, and payroll expenses.

The proposed new weekly rates are at or below the average of other childcare learning centers in our service area.
