It was also interesting to note that nearly 87% of Southern State transfer students transfer prior to earning their associate degree. Among that population, 25.5% end up graduating with a four -year degree whereas only 18.2% of those who transfer with an earned associate degree continue to the 4year graduation.

The Clinton County College Fair event is set for October 26. RSVP's are coming in. This is one of the largest college fairs in the area. SSCC holds the event in conjunction with Washington High School.

The GE booth was covered at Adams County at the fair by SSCC recruiters and Lisa Peterson covered a booth at the Cattle Feeders Fair at Fayette County. The Chamber booth will also be covered at the Brown County fair.

New student orientation dates have been set, and Liz Burkard (Marketing) and Jim Barnett, III (Recruiting) have been working together. They have sent out over 500 letters. Jim and Lisa are following up with phone calls to students who have applied but are not registered for fall.

Jessica Wise, Liz, and Recruiting have reached out to computer science students in an effort to build that program.
