Nationwide exhibit, Anne Frank play coming to Southern State Community College

A national exhibit surrounding the life of Anne Frank will be open to the public at Southern State Community College's Hillsboro campus this October, followed by a production of "Diary of Anne Frank" at the beginning of November.

Angles said the play covers two years in a couple hours: from the day, the Frank family arrives at The Annex, their place of hiding, until they are found and arrested.

"The audience will get to see what daily life was like in hiding, how they had to be quiet a good deal of the time so they wouldn't be discovered, how they had to ration food."

Angles said working on the play has already been a powerful and emotional experience for the cast and crew.

"Not only is it an educational historical piece, but also a piece that evokes empathy for everyone involved," Angles said, "The artists and the audience."ed8dri. (e)o.-78)n-6 (1a. 8d)eri. (e)gec,15 3dea. f
